Back-end (3ects)

We peek behind the curtains and inspect what's behind the web. You build web apps with Node.js, communicate with HTTP, and store data in a database with MongoDB. People can actually fill in forms, like things, and upload files.

Front-end (3ects)

We concentrate on improving the knowledge core JavaScript concepts and learn how to progressively enhance interfaces with HTML, CSS & JavaScript. In so called Dev--Des sessions multiple frontend components are designed and build.

Project-tech (5ects)

You'll build a dynamic prototype of a matching application. Learn about soft skills; reading documentation, collaboration and ‘hard’ skills: command line, version, control, build tools, code quality.

Vragen stellen

Zodat we elkaar beter kunnen helpen

- ❖ Lees eerst documentatie en zoek online!
- ❖ Gebruik geen screenshots; link naar files op GH
- ❖ Wees specifiek; formuleer je vraag grondig
- ❖ Vraag in channels; ipv prive berichten

Note: het is heel belangrijk dat we een gezellige community maken, in plaats van dat het alleen en plek is waar docenten mededelingen plaatsen. Help elkaar!

Student:

But... all the other students in my class are better than me! Argh, I can't do this!

Teacher:

Basta! That's imposter syndrome.

The screenshot shows a web browser window for the Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences (AUAS) website. The URL is https://www.amsterdamuas.com/practical-matters/general/auas/student-affairs/student-counsellors/contact-student-counsellors/student-counsel. The page title is "Contact Student counsellor". The header includes the AUAS logo, navigation links for EDUCATION, RESEARCH, and ABOUT AUAS, and language options for Alumni and Nederlands. A search bar with a magnifying glass icon is also present. Below the header is a main menu with categories: PROGRAMMES, OPEN DAYS, FOR PROFESSIONALS, FOR PARENTS, PRACTICAL MATTERS, and CONTACT. A large banner image shows students in a modern university setting. A yellow callout bubble on the right side of the banner contains the text "Student counseling". Below the banner, a breadcrumb navigation shows the path: HOME > EDUCATION > PRACTICAL MATTERS > STUDENT COUNSELLORS > CONTACT STUDENT COUNSELLORS. On the left, there are links for "STUDENT COUNSELLORS" and "Privacy Statement". In the center, a message reads: "Are you a prospective student and do you still have questions after visiting our website? Send an email to counseling@amsterdamuas.com". On the right, there is a "STUDENT COUNSELLOR" section with a "Share this" button.
